

Blue Grass Beret e-Newsletter

New Unit Officers Are Installed At The Last Rally Of The Season

Kentucky Unit members came together for a back to basics rally the first week of October at Pride Park located in Taylor Mill, Kentucky. Pride Park is a City Park located seven miles South of Cincinnati giving the group ample opportunity to get out and see all the local attractions. Early arrivals, Wednesday gathered at the LaRossa's Pizza Parlor for dinner. Thursday everyone enjoyed an Oklahoma Prime Rib Dinner at the park. Friday and Saturday featured a breakfast of eggs, goetta, potatoes, coffee and juice for breakfast. And then, of course there were the tours of Cincinnati and Northern Kentucky.

Saturday evening at the Installation Dinner, Charles May past Unit President, officiated the Installation of our 2014 Unit Officers.

A Note From The Prez

Another camping season has wrapped up! But we can unwrap the memories we created all winter long. This year flew by even more so than usual. I guess there is truth to the old adage "time flies when you're having fun."

I winterized the Airstream and she told me "don't be sad, I'll be right here if you need me!

From the Derby rally and touring Rupp Arena to a great Region 5 Rally at Butler State park, to milking goats at Sunrock farm, and the honor of being the Master of Ceremonies at Region 5, Pam and I thank each and everyone of our members for their help support and love. We had great laughs and wonderful foods. What else can a camping club ask for?

I know!!!!!! Lets do it again next year. Plans are nearly complete and we are talking about joint rallies, caravans and new adventures. We look forward to it and thank all of you once again.

The Christmas Luncheon is coming up. Please email or call me so I can finalize our arrangements.

Artie & Pam Martin

aom1215@yahoo.com

513-288-3419

Lot's Of Fun At The Pride Park Installation Rally

A small group of campers gathered at Pride Park, in Northern Kentucky, for five days of fun, food, and fellowship

Christy & Tommy go for a ride on the Clifton - Ludlow trolley at Cincinnati Museum Center

Some of the group take a rest in the Rotunda of the old Cincinnati Union Terminal

Everyone enjoys the great fall weather in Cincinnati

Everyone got a chance to walk around Historic Findlay Market to see the large selections of meats, pastries, and assorted specialty items. Some of the group ate at one of the delis, others enjoyed the fresh made Belgium waffles with fresh fruit.

World Peace Bell, Newport, KY

Did someone say authentic Italian food? No trip to Northern Kentucky is complete without a stop at Pompillio's Italian Restaurant for a great meal

What A Great Day For A Fall Hayride!

Some of our group aboard the Sun Rock Farm hay wagon for a ride to the pumpkin patch.

Anna Banana, our youngest member, picks out the perfect pumpkin.

Charles May demonstrates how to milk a goat.

Christmas Luncheon

07 December 2013

Claudia Sanders Dinner House, Shelbyville, KY

The colonel started his world-famous chicken chain during the 1950s in Corbin, where he and his wife, Claudia, ran a restaurant and motel. She regularly visited the town's railroad station in order to ship finger-lickin'-good ingredients to distant franchises. In 1959, the couple moved to Shelbyville, a more convenient location for taking advantage of the Louisville area's transportation hub.

The couple purchased a spacious white house, known as Blackwood Hall, on four acres beside U.S. 60, a major thoroughfare between Louisville and Lexington. The site soon bustled with employees working in the restaurant chain's headquarters and kitchen staff preparing ingredients for recipes. Claudia Sanders Dinner House opened in 1968 as The Colonel's Lady. The convivial colonel often parked the cars of his guests and greeted as many diners as his business schedule permitted.

A catastrophic fire on the day after Mother's Day in 1999 destroyed the original restaurant building. Following 17 months of reconstruction, the restaurant almost doubled in size. Today, the 24,000-square-foot facility seats more than 800 people and features several dining rooms, a banquet room, an upstairs lounge and a shady balcony.

Please plan to join us on Saturday 07 December 2013 for our Christmas Luncheon. The luncheon menu of Kentucky comfort food will be a tempting treat with the colonel's favorite items – country ham, steak and, of course, fried chicken.

Nearby Activities:

- Visit Wakefield-Scarce Galleries
- Visit Downtown antique stores
- Visit Cotton Blossom Quilting Shop

Please call Artie Martin 513-288-3419 to let him know if you plan to attend.

WHAT ARE YOU WAITING FOR?
COME JOIN US FOR A GREAT TIME.

For details about any of our great rallies check out our web site www.kentucky.wbcc.net Rather talk to a real person? Contact Artie "Alum-A-Man" Martin 513-288-3419

